Recent acquisitions include a circular advertising the "Shadows of Crime" at the Opera House, Monday eve, March 28, 1887; a china calendar plate, 1911, from Mr. Harold Taylor; maps of Paterson and New Jersey from Mr. and Mrs. Van Ripper; a bound minute book for 1925 containing town minutes for Totowa Boro.

A Great Falls Festival, featuring a Paterson industrial exhibit will be held the last week in August in the historic Passaic Falls area. Anyone having any industrial artifacts worthy of display is requested to contact Curator Ed Graf or Vice-President Jerry Nathans. Especially being sought are Colt items manufactured in Paterson, cotton goods, etc.

Have you and your family been recorded for posterity? Enclosed with this issue is a genealogy record sheet. The Genealogy Committee has requested that all members fill these out for our records. If you have already filled one out, please pass it on to a friend or neighbor. Additional sheets are available from the Society.
