This collection consists of issues of the Hawthorne News Record, "The only newspaper that gives a darn about Hawthorne. A paper for every home in Hawthorne." These periodicals contain advertisements, information on local teams and organizations, church service schedules and articles, many of which are social in nature, such as wedding and graduation announcements. Most of the contents focus on the immediate area around Hawthorne.

Series:

This collection is not a complete run, several issues are missing and there is a large gap between October 1974 and January 1975. Two copies of most issues are available.
