This collection consists of sixty-three postcards. Most of the postcards depict places in New Jersey, with the majority featuring places in the city of Paterson. Other locations include Totowa, Little Falls, Passaic, Hoboken, Asbury Park, Weehawken, Port Jervis and Jersey City. Most of the postcards were sent, and have messages written on them. Within the collection there were several recipients, all of whom were female members of the Smith family of Turner, New York (now Harriman). The postcards were printed by several companies.
